

MAYORAL PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Key Club International, a high school service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International, is observing the week of November 3-9, 1991, as KEY CLUB WEEK; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Key Club of Glenwood High School, are part of an international organization of over 137,000 students dedicated to serve with purpose their school and community, seeking to give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than the material, values of life; and

WHEREAS, they promote the adoption of higher standards in scholastics; sportsmanship; and social contacts and the development of a more concerned citizenship; and

WHEREAS, each member will perform at least fifty hours of service to his or her home, school, and community annually; and

WHEREAS, the 1991-92 Theme and Major Emphasis Program, "Inspire Achievement", focuses on being aware of the present social conditions and looking back to the fundamental ideals of Key Club to build a better future; and

WHEREAS, the service provided by the Key Club will have a positive impact on our community and its citizens.

THEREFORE, I, Carl Oblinger, Mayor of the Village of Chatham, do hereby proclaim the week of November 3-9, 1991, as KEY CLUB WEEK, and hereby do call upon the officials of the municipality and all citizens thereof, to render all support to the members of this organization and make themselves aware of Key Club whose members this day are preparing themselves to be better, more responsible citizens as they provide meaningful service to our community.

In WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of CHATHAM, ILLINOIS to be affixed, on this, the 22 day of OCTOBER, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety One.

Mayor, Village of Chatham, Illinois
