Madam Mayor,

The Chatham Jaycees respectfully request the use of the "town square" and adjoining streets, Mulberry, Chestnut, and Market for our annual Sweetcorn Festival. We hereby request the above mentioned for Thursday July 21st through Sunday July 24th.

The format for the 1994 festival will be similar to previous Sweetcorn Festivals. Highlights will include: arts and crafts, children's activities, a volleyball tournament, nightly entertainment, and our traditional celebrity cow chip throw.

Sweetcorn Festival proceeds benefit the community in many ways. The Chatham Jaycees directly contribute funds raised to parks and recreation, families in need, and community service projects such as the Christmas decorations for Route 4. Many other Chatham based not-for-profit organizations also benefit from festival fund-raising activities.

For 20 years the Chatham Jaycees have enjoyed a successful cooperative relationship with Village government. I sincerely believe that we will continue that excellent effort and ensure another successful Sweetcorn Festival.

I will be a Chairman for the 1994 Chatham Jaycee Sweetcorn Festival. Please direct any questions or correspondence to :
