OBJECTIVE

I am highly motivated, goal oriented and focused on displaying the utmost desire to accomplish any assignment. I have more than 14 years of law enforcement experience in a variety of assignments including patrol, investigations and administrative roles. Currently, I am assigned as the Central Supply Section Manager, for the Logistics Bureau, for the Illinois State Police. This section is charged with procuring, storing and issuing all equipment, uniforms and hardware for all of the department sworn officers. I was formerly assigned as staff officer for the Deputy Director of Operations, primarily responsible for overseeing the management of disciplinary cases and logistics issues. I have supervisory experience leading a team of project managers responsible for overseeing multimillion dollar projects. Furthermore, I supervised a section responsible for fleet safety for the ISP. I am presently a member of the Illinois Army National Guard completing assignments as Commander, Staff Officer, Platoon Leader and Instructor with 15 years total experience. I possess a broad knowledge of computer hardware and most popular word processing, spreadsheet applications and graphics software.
