

Chatham is known for their wonderful school district, which strongly supports academic achievement. 97.1% of Chatham residents have their high school diploma and 41.3% have their Bachelor's degree.

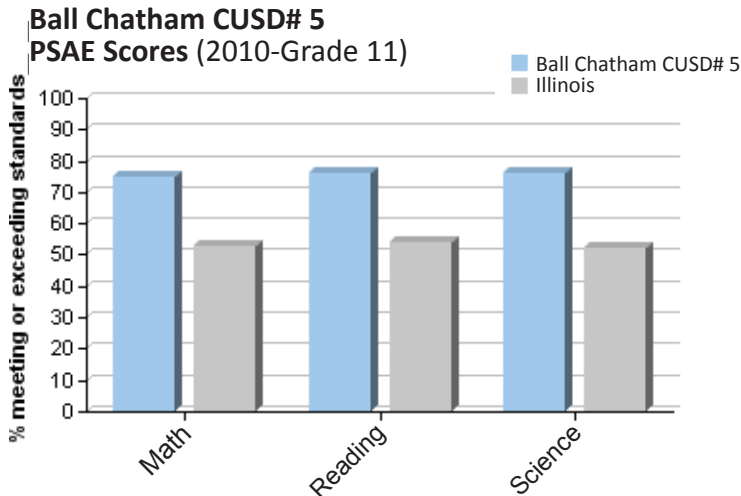

*Source: Quickfacts U.S. Census Bureau; www.city-data.com

Chatham was 1 of 5 area schools awarded the Bright Star Award for educational excellence at the elementary and high school level.

*Source: wdstudio.net/schoolsearch/star2012.htm

The Ball Chatham School District is composed of 6 schools: 3 Elementary - grades PK-4, Glenwood Intermediate School – grades 5 and 6, Glenwood Middle School – grades 7 and 8 and Glenwood High School, grades 9-12.

*Note: In 2009-2010 Illinois used the Prairie State Achievement Examination (PSAE) to test students in grade 11 in reading, math and science. The PSAE is a standards-based test, which means it measures how well students are mastering specific skills defined for each grade by the state of Illinois. The goal is for all students to score at or above the state standard.

*Source: Trulia.com http://www.trulia.com/school-district/IL-Sangamon_County/Ball_Chatham_Cmty_Unit_Sd_5/

UNIVERSITIES

- Lincoln Land Community College (about 6 miles; Springfield, IL; FT enrollment: 3,264)
- University of Illinois at Springfield (about 6 miles; Springfield, IL; FT enrollment: 2,458)
- Millikin University (about 41 miles; Decatur, IL; FT enrollment: 2,183)
- ITT Technical Institute (about 6 miles; Springfield, IL)
- Robert Morris University (about 6 miles; Springfield, IL)
- Benedictine University at Springfield (about 6 miles; Springfield, IL)

*Source: <http://www.city-data.com/city/Chatham-Illinois.html>